Building Updates

It's getting real! The trusses are up! 11 weeks until completion!

They have begun placing the roofing trusses this week. The interior walls are framed in and work will begin on fixtures in the rooms.

REMINDER: This Friday "Graffiti" Party at the site (185 Thornton Road) 5:00 PM. Come and write inspirational messages on your child's classroom walls. If you have not seen the building progress yet, this is a great time for you to come see it. Also, if you missed the last paperwork party you are more than welcome to bring your paperwork on Friday. Josh will be making an announcement as well that you will want to be among the first to hear! We are looking forward to seeing all our scholars and Fox Den families Friday!

What Do I Do Now?

So, you have filled out an information form. We have talked over the phone. You have completed your registration online. You have met with Michelle & Josh in the office. What's next?

- Turn in your paperwork folder to us.
- Confirm the class your child will be in.
- Know that you are registered at Monroe County's Premier Early Learning Academy, The Fox Den!
- Be prepared for scheduling orientation with your child's teacher in Late July.

Come join The Fox Den at the Autism Awareness festival at Day Springs Church on Saturday, April 27. We are a sponsor of the festival and will have a tent set up.

17 weeks until Day 1 of The Fox Den Academy!
